A vacation thought: the words of
Jesuit Father Anthony de Mello from his book,
Song of the Bird:

"Do you wish to hear temple bells?
Listen to the sound of the sea.

Do you wish to catch a glimpse of God?
Look intently at creation"

GOSPEL GLIMPSES for July 18

Luke 10:38-42

Two Sides to Every Story

Of course it's easy to take Mary's side in today's lesson, just as Jesus did. He made an important point to the harried and overworked Martha. We must worship before we work, if we want our priorities straight.

But there are always two sides to a story, and often two lessons to be learned, merely by standing on the opposite side. When you're sitting at Mass, attending that meeting or retreat, have you ever considered who made it all possible? Are you one of the workers or one of the many who let the list of "to-dos" rest of the shoulders of a few? So often we arrive at events, ready to worship or participate without a single thought for the hours of preparation or cleanup. We enfold ourselves willingly in the role of Mary, basking in the experience, ignoring the Martha who made it possible.

This Sunday as we read the story of these two "opposite" sisters, may we learn as much from Martha as we do from Mary, taking our turn to do the work, as well as join the worship.

PRACTICE OF HOPE

God has placed a desire for happiness in the human heart. It is hope that nurtures this desire for eternal happiness, protecting us from discouragement and helping us when we feel abandoned. This week (July 22) we celebrate the memorial of Saint Mary Magdalene. Read John 20:1-18...her own story of feeling abandoned and then having hope restored. The first to see the risen Christ, she has gone to the tomb seeking his corpse. Instead, she encountered the risen Lord, and her sorrow turned into joy. By sharing the Good News, she brought hope to others. Through the intercession of Mary Magdalene, we too could become a person of hope and share that virtue with others.

Stewardship Note for ~ Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire--a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?

Next Week's Readings:
Genesis 18-20-32
Colossians 2:12-14
Luke 11:1-13

Helping the needy ~ Saint Vincent de Paul Society

A clothing bin is located in the back of the church parking lot for unwanted clothes and shoes that are in good condition.

Your used clothing items will help the St. Vincent de Paul Society with their many outreach programs.

Thank you for your on going contributions!
